(Docket No. 1272)

U.S. ETHERNET INNOVATIONS, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

AT&T MOBILITY, LLC, et al.,

Defendants,

No. C 10-5254 CW

On October 17, 2011, the Court directed the parties to deposit $10,000 each in a trust account as an interim payment of costs to provide funds for compensation of a Court-appointed technical advisor. The Court issued two subsequent orders reinstating the technical advisor, Kwan Chan. The account into which the initial money was put has now been substantially drawn down by payments to the technical advisor. Accordingly, the parties are ordered, on a per capita basis, to deposit forthwith an additional $100,000 to be added to the funds in the existing

1 account. The technical advisor advises the Court that the account
2 into which the initial money was placed is no longer in use. The 3 Court will inform the parties of the new account information.
